

My research is broadly in the field of quantum materials and dynamics. I am hoping to take on a summer student who will have completed their third year of undergraduate studies by summer 2026, with courses in quantum mechanics and statistical physics, and knows programming (Python/C/Fortran/Julia). Possible project topics include theoretical study of “Superconductivity in topological materials” and “Spin dynamics in magnetic solids”.